

2007 Business- After-Hours Hosts to be Selected

Chamber members know that Business-After-Hours are one of the best networking opportunities available as a benefit of being a Chamber member. Business-After-Hours are the Chamber's largest monthly networking events and provide a way to meet new people, gather business leads and network with fellow Chamber members. The location varies from month to month as the event takes place at various member businesses around the county.

2006 Business-After-Hours Hosts

On Tuesday, October 10th at Business-After-Hours hosted by Regions Bank, we will have a drawing to select the hosts of the 2007 Business-After-Hours. Businesses interested in hosting a 2007 Business-After-Hours must notify the Chamber via email at marie@FayetteChamber.org to submit their name for entry into the drawing.

Businesses entered into the drawing will participate in the 2007 date selection process until all the 2007 Business-After-Hours dates are selected. Chairman and President Level Chamber sponsors are all guaranteed a 2007 Business-After-Hours date should they desire. Entries must be received by Friday, September 29th and will be confirmed by Marie Schley at the Chamber via email and letter. Only confirmed entries will be considered for the drawing. All Chamber members are eligible so come on, take advantage of one of your Chamber benefits and be a 2007 Business-After-Hours Host and send your email in today!

How do you know whether you can be a successful entrepreneur, or if you are better off as a salaried employee? Running a one-person business or partnership is a creative, flexible and challenging way to become your own boss and chart your own future. It is about creating a life, as it is about making a living. It takes courage, determination and foresight to decide to become an entrepreneur. From the relatively safe cocoon of the corporate world, where paychecks arrive regularly, you will be venturing into the uncharted territories of business.

Whether you own a business or manage a large organization, it is a challenge to succeed. If it were not, more people would be successful, but for every person who is enjoying the fruit from the tree of success, more are examining the roots. They are trying to figure it all out. They are mystified and perplexed by what seems to be some strange, complex and elusive secret that must be found if ever success is to be enjoyed.

This year the Business-to-Business Luncheon has focused on successful Chamber business members through its "Success Series" luncheons. Speakers have shared the "secrets to their success" for others to hear, question, and absorb. Chamber members such as Darrel Cutts, CEO of Piedmont Fayette Hospital, Robert Lenox, President and owner of Printegra, Robert Mucklow owner of Mucklow's Jewelry, Rona Fong owner of Rona's Flowers and Gifts and many more have told their stories and recounted their steps in taking an idea and molding it into a flourishing business.

Don't forget to "Save the Date" for the Small Business of the Year Awards Luncheon on Wednesday, November 8, 11:45 a.m. at Whitewater Creek Country Club in Fayetteville. RSVP at www.FayetteChamber.org.
